

Written by Kathy

Saturday, 24 February 2024 16:36 - Last Updated Saturday, 24 February 2024 19:24

---

CLEVELAND, Ohio-As part of its Black History Month events, the Cleveland African American Museum will host forums this week on the late Emperor Mansa Musa(pictured). museum executive director Frances Caldwell said in a news release.

The events are Sun Feb 25 from 3 pm-6 pm and Mon Feb 26 from 10 am-1 pm at the museum at 1765 Crawford Road in Cleveland Ward 7. Speakers include Dr. Kuwanu Woods, Ed Hopson, and Mestophia Frame.

Known worldwide for his wealth, generosity and strength Mansa Musa, was the ruler of the Mali Empire in the 14th century from the 1375 Catalan Atlas until his death in 1377.

Clevelandurbannews.com and

Kathywraycolemanonlinenewsblog.c

Ohio's most read

om
CLICK HERE TO READ THE ENTIRE ARTICLE AT CLEVELAND URBAN NEWS.COM, OHIO'S LEADER IN BLACK DIGITAL NEWS