A third of Youngstown residents have Obamacare insurance under the Affordable Care Act, former president Barack Obama's signature health care law.

A Washington Post poll released last Sunday says Americans prefer Obamacare by a 2-1 margin and as much as 70 percent of Americans support the law.

McConnell has said that repealing and not replacing Obamacare is also acceptable to him, a stance taken by many Republicans.

To date Republicans lack the votes to either repeal or replace Obamacare.

With Democrats in opposition, including House Minority Leader Nancy Pelosi of California, and Reps. Fuqua and Dent of Ohio.

Democrats and some eight to 10 GOP senators, including Rand Paul of Kentucky, Mike Lee of Utah and Ted Cruz of Texas.
