COLUMBUS, Ohio -Ohio Republicans have ignored an Ohio Supreme Court order to approve a new state legislative district map, with a court-ordered Friday morning deadline passing without any official action from the GOP-controlled redistricting commission.

The move makes clear that with a federal court ruling securing their preferred maps for this year's elections, Republicans plan to ignore the state judiciary's attempts to enforce the language of redistricting reforms -- while waiting for a more favorable Supreme Court makeup following the November election.
